MARK E. ALLEN has practiced law for over 20 years almost exclusively in the area of family law litigation and collaborative family law representation on a variety of family law matters including, but not limited to, divorce, child custody, guardianship, grandparents' rights, child support, paternity, father's rights, modification of child or spousal support and adoption. A former President of the Clay County Bar Association he has cultivated professional relationships with most of the top notch family law practitioners in the Greater Kansas City Missouri area.

He received his license to practice law in 1991, the same year in which he received his J.D. from the University of Missouri at Kansas City. Prior to attending law school, Mark received his B.B.A. (business degree) from the University of Missouri at Kansas City in 1985.

Mark is a member of the Missouri Bar, the Kansas City Missouri Bar Association, the Clay County Bar and the International Academy of Collaborative Professionals.
